FISCAL MANAGEMENT

Funding Channel

The consortium has designated a fiscal agent

Rationale

Fiscal Agent structure, administered by State Center Community College, has been successful to date and has been managed under a fiscal agent model approved unanimously by the SCAEC Board. The fiscal agent model has provided greater cohesion among the Consortium members.

Approach

The Executive Director of the State Center Adult Education Consortium manages the rolling up of grant expenditures and reporting to the State.

Funding Changes

Funding for the 2016-17 reporting year will remain constant. Additional allocations will be determined on both an application basis and per member request to the SCAEC Board once additional funding for 2016-17 is confirmed by the State. Variance is due to those members receiving additional funding for regionally enhanced services through an application process for the 15-16 FY.

Consensus and Approval Process

Distribution of both 2015-16 and 2016-17 AEBG funds were determined by the SCAEC Board in accordance with Section 84913 of AB104. Additional funding for 2016-17 and 2017-18 will be determined by the SCAEC Board in accordance with publicly noticed meetings.

OTHER RULES AND PROCEDURES

---

Additional Information

Additional AEBG allocations will reside with the Fiscal Agent until the SCAEC Board determines a distribution schedule to Consortium Members and/or Partners at a publicly noticed SCAEC Board Meeting.
